IV. Missa S. P. Benedicti

Handwritten musical score for a Kyrie eleison. The score is written on 15 staves, each with a treble clef and a common time signature (C). The lyrics are written below the staves, often with long horizontal lines indicating sustained notes or breaths. The text includes "Kyrie eleison" repeated throughout. The notation features various note values, rests, and dynamic markings such as "ad." (ad libitum) and "ad." (adagio). The handwriting is in a cursive style, typical of 18th or 19th-century musical manuscripts.
